

Internship Delhi: Market Research

Length of internship: 6 months, Start Date: asap

This company is a pioneer in the Market Research Outsourcing Industry, headquartered in Delhi, India, with several offices around the globe. In its 7 years of existence, the company has grown from an initial headcount of 12 to almost 2,000 professionals. You might expect to work in an global environment, with colleagues from India, Europe, Asia and Latin America. The nature of the work enables interns to gain expertise in international business processes, and multicultural understanding. There are training programs that will enhance your inter-cultural communication skills, IT ability, Analysis etc.

Internship Tasks:

The company is currently offering several positions in the office in Delhi.

- Data collecting through secondary and primary research
- Working on live client projects
- Preparing client deliverables and reports in Word, PowerPoint or Excel Spreadsheet formats
- Performing specific analysis with guidance from senior colleagues on data that has been collected
- Active participation in and contribution to team discussions on problem solving, brainstorming, effective approaches to deal with project-specific issues, etc.
- Other initiatives: ample opportunity for getting involved in other activities such as streamlining of processes, knowledge management, HR, PR and sales activities etc.

Work Timings: 5 days/ week

Your Qualifications:

- Currently attending or graduate of a reputed university

- Good knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint is required
- Fluent Knowledge of another language besides English

Remuneration:

- highly competitive (will cover all living costs and other expenses in India)

Apply for this position: Click: Application Form